Roxbury, Mass. Jan. 26 1870

Dear Sir:

I cannot agree to publish any article till I have seen it.

My own feeling toward Mr. Stanton, is the feeling I have to any man, who I suppose put a thing through as well as he knew how, and did not shirk.

But I do not pretend to make the articles in my journal all state my feelings,
— and I shall be very glad if you will send me such a

Hale

Paper as you describe, - though I will not promise to print it till I have read it.

It should not make more than 8 pages of our journal say 500 words.

Respy yours

Edw. E. Hale

To Gen. Phelps.
