SENTRY HILL
NORWICH, CONNECTICUT

Feb. 3. 1904.

My dear Lane:

Will you kindly have copies of Prospro sent to Henry James (Lamb House, Rye, Sussex) and to Edmund Gosse (17. Hanover Terrace, Regents Park, N.W.).

We are, as you see, still detained here, but expect to return to England very soon now. Have you begun

Depositing £50 a month with my bankers? If not will you do so please? You remember this address: Brown, Shipley & Co, Founders' Court, Litchbury, E.C.

So then, hoping to see you soon, I am ever Yours
H. H. H.

Henry Harland.
