MILLBANK,

LONDON, S.W.,

2 April 1903

Dear Mr. Kerr-Lawson

I thank you very much for sending me your invitation to see the "Little Landscapes of Italy", which I should certainly visit in any case both for your sake and the sake of dear Italy. I fear I shall only be able to come a little before 1 o'clock as I have an engagement in the afternoon. If I do not have the pleasure of seeing you then I hope you will someday soon come and see me here. I am generally to be found from 10 am to 4 p.m., except Saturdays and Sundays. But a card would make it certain.

yours faithfully
Charles Holroyd.
