

241 Beacon St. Boston.

Feb. 15th 1897.

Dear Major Ford,

Your letter enclosing cheque for sixty dollars is humbly acknowledged with thanks. I enjoyed my visit to your house very much, and have felt no ill effects either from my journey or from the fatigue of lecturing.
I appreciate your kindness in arranging these lecture engagements for me.
With regards to Mrs Ford, believe me
yours sincerely,
Julia Ward Howe.