

Barnuda, July 10, 1911.

Dear Mr. Siter:

I thank you for ~~me~~ for letting me see your mother's copy of my poem about my brother:
it is doubly touching for her interest in it. I remember so well when the news of my first
bereavement reached me in Venice forty-six years ago.

I thank, also, for your own poems and thoughtful poems. With all wishes for your
health and happiness,

Yours sincerely
W. D. Howells
