Dear Colonel Crawshay,

We have just ended a worried week by moving to our new address, & have had so much to do with the with struggling with a story hideously overdue for a magazine that I have never been able to go near Archie, nor has my wife been able to gather the flowers. But we have appreciated ever so much your kindness in both offers.

I take off my hat with both hands to Patry on her success. Splendid!

In great haste hoping you are all having a good time. Sincerely yours, Arthur Hutchings.
