

Newark, June 29th 1835.

My dear Mrs. Wells,

Let me present to you my nephew Mr. Treat Irving, who is about to make a tour of Europe for information and the improvement of his health. I would ask you be the patron of your countenance during his sojourn in Paris, being extremely how much it can add to the happiness of of a sojourner even in that city of delights - I am most faithfully yours
Washington Irving.
