NEW YORK

July 20: 1884.

My dear E. D. (e) N.

If I can resist the temptation to squander it on ice cream sodas and Uneda Coolers on my way home to-night Mrs Bangs will be the delighted recipient of your cheque before the sun gilds the western horizon with its scorching rays this evening.

And, by the way, please hang on to that scrap book of Scott treasures like an Octopus. I wouldn't part with that for many dollars now My recollections of the charming hospitality at the Sibbey home are still as kindly pleasurable as ever. Please send my appreciative thanks to my host and hostess and give my kindest regards as well to Mrs North who has also made me feel very much at home when I was away from home.

Ever yours

J.M.B.
