TEN EAST TENTH STREET.

Dear Mr. Björkman:

Two or three years ago you very kindly sent me these letters which I promised to return, but which I have kept while I was still at work on the two volumes that are now out. It was not possible to print more than a fraction of what was sent to me, but everything was informing and helpful, and I am sincerely obliged to you for your thoughtfulness and patience.

Yrs. very truly
Henry James,

Henry James III Son of Wm James (d. 1948)
