

2.

Dear Mr. Borkman

Here is the stuff I have written — with much domestic interruption, incissant company etc. I expected to cover more ground but perhaps this is enough
— if it be only clear! But I am afraid it is still too abstract for the Evening Post. Use it in any way you think fit, or return it to me unused.

In any case, it may be best to return it - it may prove a useful memorandum for myself.

In haste

Wm James

95 Irving St.

Oct 15. 07.

A.N.S. to Edwin Bjorkman.
1 $\frac{1}{2}$ p. (half of a double sheet, octavo).

He sends what he has written for the Evening Post, but fears it may be too obtruse; he asks Bjorkman to return the Ms. whether it is used or not, for his own memorandum.

15 Oct. 1907.

Dear Mr. Bjorkman

Here is the stuff I have written - with much domestic interruption, incessant company etc. I expected to cover more ground but perhaps this is enough - if it be only clear ! But I am afraid it is still too obtruse for the Evening Post. Use it in any way you think fit, or return it to me unused. In any case, it may be best to return it - it may prove a useful memorandum for myself.

In haste

Wm James

95 Irving St.