

Thank you very dear Mrs Hall for your kind note - I have thought nothing but good of you for it would require much more than mere negative proof to make me think you otherwise than kind & polite

In my note to Mr. Hall
I asked him a question relative to a paper for the new monthly which I then had nearly ready for him - but I cannot think of it at present a severe sorrow has fallen upon me, which must be my excuse

for not seeing you
tomorrow evening
- In a few days I shall be able to go out & meet my friends with cheerfulness. I have read your Sketches with very much pleasure
may present my kind regards & best wishes to Miss Jewsbury - when is she to be married?

I should like to see her future! —

I am ever dear
Mrs Hall
most truly yours

Anna Jameson
