

Green House Wroughton May 25th

Mr Jordan presents his Compliments to Mr Croker. He is quite ashamed of the Publishers' neglect in not having sent (as he requests) some copies of the accompanying N^o of the N. P. Gallery to Mr Croker, as a slight acknowledgement of their mutual obligation to him. Mr J. begs his acceptance of a N^o to preserve the Memoir. He has discontinued his Subscriptions of the publication.
