

Monday Morning

Dear Grant / I certainly hoped to make more than £15 by the Wonders: could you not say £20 for the sale outright?

It will make a book of 150 pages - is it not then worth this? If so, I should be glad to come to your terms - in proof whereof I enclose an acknowledgment of ~~the~~ receipt ^a leaving you to fill up the amount. I think that you will find £20 a moderate valuation:

however, if you cannot do it - I must say £15 - as I am in immediate want of the cash. - I shall leave the matter to you - Yours ever

E Grant - Esq. Alaughan Fenold

You shall have all the copy within the week

—

Monday March 19th 1849

Received of Messrs Grant & Griffiths the sum of $15.00 as purchase money of the copyright of "The Wonders of Home"

By
Wm Blanchard Sewall