

Razquette Lake Adirondacks,
14 September
South Berwick, Maine

Dear Mr. North

I have been at Richfield Springs and later here, and you note hid itself away soon after it came, so safely that it has only just now appeared to view in a travelers disorderly writing-case.

I thank you very

Would you be so kind as to have the copies (proof and two or three plain prints if possible, sent by post or Express to me with the bill - to South Berwick Maine

much for being so kind as to remember about the illustration to Betsy Lane.
It was the full page portrait of the heroine advancing across the fields, and was published (I think) in the August number of 1893

Yours most sincerely
Alan S. Jewett
