My Dear Mr North

I am at a little loss to know whether you mean my favorite book in general or my favorite book in particular: that is to say, my favorite among the books that I have written. I should say in answer to this last (at least at this moment!) that ~~the~~ it would be

The Country of the Pounded Treis.

And I should be very glad to write my name in a copy if it would give you pleasure.

I do not know how I should answer your question if you meant it 'in general' -

Believe me yours very sincerely F. D. Jewett
