My dear Munro:

Could you possibly use 275 lines of this — the amount
I shall read — in your December number appearing about November 25?

I shall not be surprised if you say no but I take the chance as I have promised to devote the proceeds toward the expenses of the occasion, which will be heavy.
Kindly let me have as prompt a reply as you can.

I have been trying to catch you at your office. I hope you are coming on satisfactorily.

Faithfully yours,

R. W. Gilder

Mr. S. A. Munro.
