Mr. Hugh Peal, Attorney

Dear Hugh:

I am terribly sorry that I have delayed so long in writing you, but have been going like mad ever since Christmas.

Thank you for the beautiful linen handkerchief which you sent me for Christmas through Malcolm Fooshee. I have been needing one like this a long time for my dinner jacket.

Malcolm and I talk about you so often and I am so glad he can be with you and Mrs. Peal often during these difficult days.

I am going to announce for the Democratic nomination for President Wednesday, and hope you will pass on to me any ideas and suggestions you may have.

Best of everything.

Sincerely,
