

54.

Dear Madam
February 11/57

Madam.

It would give me the very greatest pleasure, to have the honour of your attendance from hissiness, at my lectures, under any circumstances. I am not aware, however, whether I have the right of granting free admissions: but I have written today to the Secretary to ascertain. If I am so entitled, a note will be left for you a Mr. Sauglich on Tuesday afternoon at Gibbs Royal Hotel, Prince's Street; & I can only add, that after your most kind letter, it will be a great regret to me to find that I am unable to grant the paper.

I remain

Yr dear Madam

Yours very obedient servant

Charles Nicolson
