

Dear Sir, I send these slips, because I find them done, & want to get rid of them. I am most uneasily situated at home, & if what I expect, takes place, it may be long before I shall have any communication of the sort to send. I beg you will accept this brief token of good will, & leave me to myself & ~~take~~ time to recover into a state for writing —

I am, very with best wishes for the Lord. May —

Clamb

Mr. Hefry, or Mr. Taylor

1891

Acad. Nov. 12/167

12167