

his opinions any more than yourself — not being in the way of meeting with the Court, Journal or indeed in the habit of reading any thing much that is not twenty years old (You I know converse with worthies of a much older date) As for Reviews; I have not looked into one for an age — but I have always heard him spoken of with respect & I make no doubt of his success ultimately.

~~My dear Mr. Patmore~~

& if Mr. Patmore will do me the favor to call upon me any morning before 12 o'clock (I seldom go out earlier) I shall be very happy to see him — of the will to serve him he may be sure, but my power is small indeed.
