

A Hotel Byron
Boston. March 15. 1857

Dear Sir.

In reply to your note
I will say that I do not write regularly for any paper or magazine,
but occasionally for many,
the Atlantic Monthly, Saint Nicholas, the Youth's Companion,
and others.

Messrs. Houghton,
Mifflin, & Co. 4 Park St.
Boston, are my publishers, and they will send you an illustrated Catalogue
of their books and

authors, if you request it I thank you for the Kind words you say
of what I have written. It is always pleasant to receive such messages.
It gives the feeling that one's work has been worth while.

Sincerely yours,
Inez Sarcom
