Dear Lady Lighton, very many thanks for all your kind letters.
What a trouble I have been to you.

I am glad to say that my wife continues to im-prove, & unless she takes a sudden turn I shall venture to indulge myself by coming to see

see you to-morrow.

Sh^d. she not to do well in the m^g. I will take advantage of ~~the~~^{the} kind latitude you allow me: so if I sh^d. not put in an appearance, you will understand.

Believe me

your sincerely

Richard D. Gallienne.
