

Chelsea
Heraldry

LOCKER-LAMPSON r.

3 pp. 30 Cadogan Gdns. S.W. 8 July (1892) - to J. Cordy Jeaffreson (1831-1901) the writer - 'I saw Arthur yesterday & we talked of many things; amongst others of your having, in your researches, found our name in some old documents, but he did not think that there was anything to show that we were in by any way connected with them. Arthur said...there might be a clue...' WWS

30 Cadogan Gardens S.W.
8 July 1892

My dear Jefferson

I saw Arthur yesterday.
& we talked of many things. amongst others of your Latin, in your researches, found our name in some old documents. but he did not think that there was aptly to show that we were in any way connected with them.

Arthur said they were quite short passages, & he has encouraged me.

my
dear
Jefferson

me to ask you to give me an extract. I do this so that if hereafter any else turned up there might be a clue.

Arthur struck me as looking considerably better. At, poor fellow, he has much discomfort in many ways. He told me that you looked younger than of yore.
I hope you are as well as you look. & that Mr. Jefferson is quite well. My kind regards to you & yours

Always truly

F. Lockwood Lamson

I write in ignorance, so if that I have asked you to give me, entails trouble, please do not think about it.