My Dear Sir

I corrected the proof last night of the entire of the piece so that on Monday any body can have it — I cannot conceive why Mr. Dineen could be that he is so obliging to you — I suppose the fact is, that it is impossible to give you the M. S. now as it has been used up in the printing office but on Monday you must have the printed copy — I have not yet finished the setting of the copy — I cannot please myself with it but I shall lay on Monday you shall have that too — or Tuesday

Certainly; however there is no hurry about it as we mean it for Drury Lane.
I think I have a thought about to examine in my brain of a nice subject for a one act ballet operetta such as you wished for. I'll speak to you about it before you leave town — when do you leave?

Yours very truly
Samuel Lover
