Dear Sir

My time has been all this summer, & is still, so much occupied, that I have been compelled to decline all invitations to lecture.

If I had been lecturing at all I would gladly have Come to Norwich, but the preparation of a lecture requires (at least with me) a greater amount of time & thought than it is at present possible for me to devote to it.

I am, dear Sir,

Very truly yours

John Lubbock

J. Compton Esq

Sir John Lubbock.
