1920

My dear North, I send you a copy for old Saks'

sake. In reading it -

on listening to it - you must bear in mind that

Miss Terry has agreed to perform it

she had "nothing to learn". But after

ward she complained

that the author

had given the "nothing" to say!

to have a calm

panace  am

now too busy

again.

Yours sincerely

S.W. 1.

P.S.

I wonder if you would care to have

for framing & sale

8 of the Elegant

first original volumes

plates? If so

let me know &

give me what is just.
