Dear Wilson,

You will be pleased to hear that I have passed your excellent advice on to Sir Sidney Colvin and he has withdrawn all idea of selling the letters. I am hoping that ^a the compromise can be effected which will enable him to do as he wishes with regard to the magazine article. I shall come in and see you as soon as I can.

Many thanks for your French book, which I shall examine at the end of the week.

Believe me,
Yours sincerely,

E. Lucas
