Dear Sir,

I am sorry to have been so long in answering your letter & in returning the enclosed picture. I will tell, as you will see from the heading of this letter, I have changed my address since you wrote, & I have been very busy with things.

I am afraid that now it will be difficult for you to bring your copy of Two Old for Dicks yourself, as I live such a long way off; but if you care to post it home, I shall have very great pleasure in sending it back to you.

Yours sincerely

Anton Ludovici
