Sir, I am sorry that I can be of no use to you. I have no connexion with any newspaper. I know the editor of the Edinburgh Review; but, as it is not in my power to give him any assistance, I am
yours

feel a delicacy about asking anything of him.

There is at present
no international treaty about copyright between England and the United States; nor do I much expect that there will be such a treaty.
Some of my friends
however are more

sure than myself.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your faithful servant
