

ASHLEYDENE,
ROXBURGH ROAD,
WESTGATE ON SEA.

Nov. 17. 1900.

My dear Fletcher Mantton

I have had much pleasure in signing the photograph which I return - with many thanks to your American friend for his wish to have it. When are you paying us a visit here again? You talked of coming soon again
when you were last here,
but you have neglected
us for General Elections.

and other such trivialities.
Ask Winnie to write to me and tell me about you all.

My health is very good
on the whole, but my eyes as yet "don't amount to much".

Charlotte joins me in loving remembrances to you all.

Ever truly yours
Justin M. Carthy.
