NEW YORK,

Dear Mr North
This is the only one
I can find of either
poem at present.
If a more complete
one turns up I will send it to you.

Faithfully

Men forth the sleepless boy
in Heber's vale ~~stepped~~
To meet Goliath ~~stepped~~, <sup>no</sup> coat of mail ~~nor~~ nor sword, nor spear, ~~he~~
nor bow, nor any thing
Except one little penny
dreadful thing.
His pebble ~~sped~~, the big Philistine's fall
Gave lumber means
a license, once for all.

And helps your bard ~~and~~
warrant to construe
To launch light verse
at learned men like you.

masters of audition, chosen sirs,
More <sup>knowledge</sup> ~~becoming~~ close with all that's known concur.

Who taste all fruits on <sup>his</sup> ~~his~~ <sup>divine</sup>
tree that grow

After all's said, what <sup>does</sup> do
we <sup>it pay</sup> need to know?

Knowledge is power; what knowledge? Power for what?
To <sup>see to take to him</sup> do, or not to do? To have,
or not?

After all's said, what do we need to know?

Heater of condition <sup>Assen</sup> learner
What <sup>learning</sup> scope all with it <sup>its of course</sup>

pleasings make my hearts or pockets stout?

Bring <sup>things</sup> means, or teach <sup>as</sup> how to go without,

fit as means, or shall it be
fit our need ~~or use~~

Track us to spare, or <sup>make</sup>
~~us~~ to spend?

All day the <sup>you</sup> ~~man~~ sits and contemplates

his naval, Earth winds in.

ward winds he waits
his <sup>brooding hope</sup> ~~heads~~ no less of time concerns.

~~through~~ His concentrated thought
~~his life is used~~

seems all his time.

~~of~~ food the least that soul
& body joins,

His raiment but the clout
about his loins

to think is all he asks; <sup>in</sup> ~~it's more than~~ <sup>easy</sup>

they only ~~seems~~ to keep - <sup>can</sup>
rather to keep a hospitable
good open door

So merely, we would go on ~~trying to fit~~
~~perfecting~~ all we learned
with what we knew, and doubtless it is as well that
our ingenuity should lag
for want of matter.

Where ~~into~~ <sup>caught</sup> ~~may~~ <sup>perhaps</sup> ~~in~~
in time ~~may~~ <sup>be</sup> ~~flow~~

A consciousness transcending
all things learned.

Needless of force; oblivious of fact.

Broken of men, with or power
to act.

Under his bo-tree, raft, beheld him sit.

A patient mark for Misdorri's darts to hit.
