BOX HILL,
DORKING.

Dear Friends,

Your letter
took all hope from me.
He has gone as a
hero fighting against great odds for long years, & now more
gentle, more more
serviceable, & true

Comrade. When I feel shower of great ideas
clearer sight you
may be partly consoled
by feeling the love of high esteem in which he remains with us.
With me he will be ever present. God bless thee you. You will know to the end most affectionately yours
George Meredith
