

(7)

5 August 1891

Dear Lewis,

Mr. D'Spina who sculpted the Marital Struggle with an eagle some years ago, had a highly finished Chloro statue of David in the Pitt, marble & not having sold it knows not where to lay its head. All he wishes is an option for it he beside and I have tried to get it placed, so far without success.
Could you find room for such an ornament in your Conservatory

If he sends it to a store he has to pay for room & it will cost £50 to take back to home.

Perhaps you remember it?
The boy stands with the head of you with other feet.

If I had the room I should be only too glad to give it up but I have not.

With kind regards believe me
Yours truly
W. H. H. H.