Dear Mr Gladstone

Now that I hear

Mr Gladstone is better I venture to ask just one other hour's sitting when it is quite convenient.

I know he is in town as

I wish but I will not trouble him with a note

when I know he has so much to think of

When he comes to town
next time you might mention it to him

I am painting two one for Lord Rosby.
The other for Christ Church

otherwise I will not have required another coat.

With my most regard

Believe me

Very truly yr

John Gougeon
