

Mr. Smith Mr. Rogers & Co.

Puerto Astil

11 April 94

Dear Mr. Rogers & Mrs. Rogers

I had a wretched night & am in consequence a week to day, otherwise I could have strolled round to see your invalid. Possibly there was too much night furniture in the bath to & from Pool ^{yesterday} the weather & last night's storm may have affected my nerves. If I am no better tomorrow morning we must wait until the day after for our dinner.

I am keeping all myself in a room adjoining my bedroom, where I mean to dine alone, my head is so dizzy I cannot walk in this blazing sun.

Yours truly
J. E. Sullivan
