

Thomas Moore

Rev. W. L. Gaskell

My dear Madam - I trust you will be glad to hear that I have closed the most propitious accounts about my <sup>X</sup> books - A second Edition is so urgently wanted that they are going to press on Monday morning, and putting on hands enough to print the two octavo volumes together. This, in three or four days, with a three-guinea Quater, is far beyond what I expected.
