My dear W^{rs} Hall - To any one who ever saw your beautiful dwelling (without ever knowing its ac-greable inmates) the loss of such a bijou of mansions could not but give pain. You may conceive, therefore, what pain was both felt at this ac-count both of your loss and your danger
- your escape from the latter was most providential - We shall be most anxious to hear that neither you have neither of you suffered in any way from the acci-dent - Yours most truly Thomas Moore
