23, EARL'S TERRACE,
KENSINGTON, W.

Dear Mr. Buckle

I am very much obliged to you for publishing my letter this morning: and for the explanation given in the appended note.

I now enclose copies of two letters which Lord Foschen thinks it desirable to publish, in order to complete the series. How I said in my copy of Hon. Sec. to Lord Foschen's meeting. I enclose also in my private copy a copy of a letter from Mr. Edward Bell to Lord Foschen, which Mr. Bell has asked me to forward with a request that you will kindly print it at the same time as Lord Foschen's letters, to one of which it is an answer. May we hope to see these three in Monday's Times? Yours very truly
Henry Newhall.
