

November 2nd, 1923

My dear Mr. Bixby:-

I am in receipt of your favor of October 31st and note with pleasure your willingness to loan the Lamb letters indicated.

As we have a good many letters I am wondering if you would send only the wonderful letter to Robert Lloyd and the one to Hazlitt which you mention.

Somehow I had tucked away in my memory the fact that you owned the manuscript of one of the "Essays of Elia" and two or three presentation copies. I am sure you would have mentioned this if it were a fact.

Kindly send the letters in question either by express collect or registered mail direct to the Grolier Club, 47 East 60th Street, where they will be placed in a safe until the exhibition opens on November 15th.

On behalf of the Club I want to thank you for your gracious consent to lend this material. I hope you can see the exhibition.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours very truly,
