

8, TRUMPINGTON STREET,
CAMBRIDGE.

18 Feb. 1909.

Dear Mr North,

Your visiting card,
with its message, was duly read out at the Lamb dinner! It was, I am told, a great success; and I send you the menu and plan. Why not come yourself next year, Feb.
10. 1910?

I have written for the biblis -

3 TRUMPINGTON STREET
CAMBRIDGE.

Geophy ( 'don't he wish he may get it!' ), and I am very curious about the Bibliophile Society edition of Lamb's letters. I don't know it. Why don't I? What does it cost? Bother money.

It was splendid of you to send me the Collier Milton.
I have, with your consent
I hope, deposited it in the University Library here as they had no copy.

Are you coming to England
this year?

Yours very sincerely,
Charles Saife.

Mr E.D. North.

Your Lamb letters you ought to print — or do we now say
out ( 'out' ) to print?
I don't mean that I can buy the Bibliophile edition, only

I want to know all about it.
