

Dear Sir

I find
That you have not yet had letter to Dogg is due to feel that I have sent it to London to be typed; for it is long, & I felt that I had no right to send you the

traces to have a Copy.

What a Sighing
Case of Creedy,

that at Marlborough Regatta!
