

42

The Hon^{ble} Mr. Secretary to Her Majesty's Prime Minister of the British Empire
Stock

Private

Mr. Secretary presents his compliments to Mr. Robert Peel, from whom, as Prime Minister of the British Empire, he begs to know when he may present an address to Her Majesty of which the enclosed is a copy.

It is from a desire to place such a copy prominently before the work, the sentiments of the contained in the address, that the writer wishes to present the address in person

Baywater Terrace 10/12

10th May 1844

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]