

Association Dinner - H. B. Wheward in the Chair. W. H. Newson, Dalton, O. Hamburg, J. L. Belford Tomkin, and Dixon, the churchwardens & others the party consisting only of the being present -

The day passed very well, but there was a want of the 'or noddai'.

The dinner was presented by Churchwardens Crump, supported by Churchwarden Hubby & Mrs. Bevil the Elder. Wheward was affected & soon down overpowered, he being totally unapprised by the slightest intimation of the intention.

Mr Crump did not make any speech. As soon as he was in a degree recovered from his surprise expressed his gratitude to the silver was handsome; sent to 50. value. Give you the acct. from Papa's mouth.

- Whewell has mentioned, to generalize properly that, on Thursday Howard the horse see him of Wakefield paper, sent to (Hewell for ⁵⁰ and purchased a small horse for his own use - so that Papa won't be in fear for his own immediate losses, unless Russell is out. Fifteen pounds, was the sum he took he sure knows that - he took that & honestly - I think it is much what we mean the: we must break it to you that he has got three white legs.

Sunday has passed completely: being Mr H. C. Dal. St. as usual: you'll be gratified as for the day: however as much I passed surprised about the fees; & ^{pleased} as you can be - after the sight of the purity of the Acts, you will not be content to be a passive judge.

The letter sent. a parcel of Whisker, Selly & Ham to you, on Wednesday per Coffe for your breakfast, luncheon &c. So it is attention to check the adj. of paper. Papa will have you now you think best in business. He thinks (among the printing matter -
