

Henry Corbet Singleton
Dragon Guards

Cantabrig/Bowmash
7th October 1831

My dear Palkifow

Nothing could give me more pleasure than being able to see you here.
Let me know this day you purpose passing through Cantabrig that I may not be disappointed in seeing you. My land make it convenient to stay here a day at least & if you would like it better I might be able to make out a bed in Bowmash for you. As somebody is also away I could do it without the slightest trouble. The the Reform Bill I hope they won't have us up in London again. Mind what takes to my ill of you don't stop here. I should think it only a few miles

Yr most truly
H. C. Singleton

Barracks, Canterbury, Kent.

7. October 1831
Lt Henry Corbet
Singleton
Dragon Guards

Mr. Palkifow Junr. Esq
No. Court
Ainslie's Inn
London

[Faint handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper, including names and addresses.]