

think & Morgan left by the boat yesterday. We have left leave our present house on Friday and move to the in New York. I think we have paid upon that house, but the think again that to direct the to No. 5. In consequence with the various suggestions & arrangements of my people. that I should again try sailing, which I did last week. I went out again with my party yesterday, and felt so comfortable

Broadstairs, Kent.
 25. October 1831.
 Sarah Frances Thomas

My dear Miss -
 I am glad to hear from you & believe to be better

William Henry Catteppon Junr Esq
 W. H. Catteppon
 Esq

uncomfortable. But when I returned was obliged to take brandy water, so now I have decidedly had advice to the ocean by way of pleasure. We have had some very high tides and a heavy sea lately, and Saturday night a rough sea but on the good in lanes. Working to add nothing was known about it till the next morning when by their papers the sailors discovered the small above the sea, but all was too late. It is supposed