Dear Mr North:

I am wishing to ask of you good news, to give me what particulars you can about the book on the other side. — I find with regard to the English Edition, which was published at the same time, that only 6 copies exist, as Ternura recalled the book at once on publication, it being a fad of his.
The last copy went through the room here some years ago & fetched £35: at Auction.
I should like to know if the Armenian edition is as scarce as the English, if recalled in the same manner. Thanking now for some kind reply. very good wish for 1916 & the back of this unended war.
