

THE PLUNKETT HOUSE,

DUBLIN.

Telegraphic Address:
"Organise," Dublin.

Telephone No. 1090.

9th October, 1914.

Dear Mr. Barnes,

I expect to be in London from the 21st to the 28th inst. and should then be very glad to call upon Lord Moulton to discuss the important question of Ireland's industrial opportunities arising out of the war.

Yours sincerely,

Grace Plunkett