20th October

My dear North,

Your second note I hand this afternoon. Heartly empratulatims. Currier was very kind but could give no help & Plomers further researches have been equally vain, but they did not take quite so long as he anticipated, wherefore your debt (which I have discharged) is 15/ instead of 21/.

Charles R. Hildeburn, 1015 Clinton St., Philadelphia, has applied for membership thro' Henry Stevens. Let me know by return if you may elect him. I will give you an extra ^{candidat} member if you need one. In haste, Alfred W. Belland

1897

I have swapped my vellum
for £10.10 & a paper copy.

Wood, beyond words

Received from A. B. Belland for researches made on behalf of Mr. E. D. North, Fifteen Shillings (15/-).

Henry R. Plomer
