Dear Sir,

Mr. A. S. W. Rosebach tells me that you would like to become a member of this Society. We have now got an Advisory Committee for America with its own Secretary Treasurer to whom we generally refer candidates, but in your case I am sure I am right in dispensing with any formality.

For the first year it will be better if you will send your Entrance fee (£1-1-0) and Subscription (also £1-1-0) to me. After this year payments should be made to our American Treasurer. Mr. North.

Faithfully yours,

A. W. Pollard.

Hon. Sec.
