26th Sept. 1842

Dear Silly,

I have written to Mr.
Garbanati if he does not wait upon you the day after you receive this. I would beg you to employ some other man with directions that he make an estimate for the work which do me

The favor to send me I'm sorry to give you all this trouble. Have the goods to direct to me. Loughboro, Moneygall, Ireland. I believe me yours sincerely

Bloomfield
